

Daily Reading

Monday: Romans 6:1-14

How does understanding that we have been "united with Him in a death like His" affect your view of your old sinful nature? How can believers live out being "dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus" in practical ways? What does it mean in your daily life not to let sin reign in your mortal body?

Tuesday: Romans 6:15-23

How do the "wages of sin" compare to the "free gift of God" in verse 23? What steps can you take to offer parts of your body to God as instruments of righteousness? How can the teachings in Romans 6 help you to deal with recurrent sins in your life?

Wednesday: Galatians 5

How can we cultivate the fruits of the Spirit in our personal and community life? How does this chapter inform the way you approach freedom and responsibility in Christ? How can we ensure that we are living in the Spirit and not fulfilling the lust of the flesh in our daily lives?

Thursday: John 8:1-12

What does Jesus' statement "the truth will set you free" mean to you personally? Reflect on the story of the adulterous woman. How does this scene inform your understanding of Jesus' approach to sin and judgment?

Friday: 1 John 1

What does it mean that God is "light"? How does this metaphor speak to God's nature? How do you interpret the phrase "walk in the light" in your everyday life? Can you give specific examples? What does "walking in darkness" mean? What are some contemporary examples of "walking in darkness"?

Saturday: 1 John 2:24-29

How can you leverage your understanding of God's commandments and His love to be a light in a world dominated by darkness and confusion? How can you foster an environment of spiritual growth for yourself and others around you?
